

Genesis Systems

About Us

Genesis Systems was established in 1984, specializing in the development of telecom related software products for all sizes of businesses and organizations. Right from the start, Genesis established an unchallenged reputation for outstanding customer satisfaction, ease of use, reliability, and ongoing product enhancement.

At Genesis we never rest. All Genesis solutions are constantly evolving to ensure we exceed your expectations. Innovations and embracing the continuous changes of the various industries we connect is our commitment. It's in our DNA.

Our Clients:

Genesis clients include a diverse range of businesses from a wide range of industries. Public safety & police agencies, multi-national manufacturing enterprises, hotels and even small home-based businesses all rely on Genesis solutions for their alerting, analytics, reporting and management needs.

Our Support:

At Genesis there is intelligent life on the other end of the phone, eager to assist you with any potential problems, questions or concerns. We pride ourselves on providing our customers with excellent after-sale technical support service, which is why all Genesis solutions include a year of unlimited technical support.

Our Partners:

Genesis is committed to fostering partnerships with other leading technology suppliers to best serve our clients. Our partners include telecom service providers, premise & hosted telephony suppliers, hospitality solution providers, and safety organizations, and more. Contact Genesis for more information if you'd like to become a partner.
